"There is only one thing I regret," said Mme. Alda, at her home in Great Neck, I. I., "and that is that the management has decided to sell the tickets at less than the regular Metropolitan prices, despite the fact that it is an sill-star cast. I believe, because the beneft is for such a worthy cause, the rates for the sears should have been raised, especially for the orchestra, boxes and first balcony. Any one who would pay the regular prices would be willing to add a dollar more for the midinettes.
